

Culinary City Tour

Simply enjoy a culinary and cultural tour! No matter whether you have lived in Magdeburg for a long time or only recently. The exciting thing is the meeting of thousands of years of city history with modern cuisine from all over the world. The most important sights of the Ottostadt are not far from each other and are visited as part of the city tour. You will be accompanied by a certified tour guide who will enthusiastically tell you about the eventful and exciting history of the city of Magdeburg. At the last culinary stop, you can linger for a while and bring the tour to a cosy close.
